

College and Adult Camp
Labor Day Weekend
Aug. 29-Sept. 1, 2008

ASIAN YOUNG LIFE invites you to experience one of the best weekends of YOUR life this Labor Day Weekend at our 11TH ANNUAL COLLEGE AND ADULT CAMP at Saranac Village in Saranac Lake, NY.

Date: Labor Day Weekend: Friday, 6:00 PM, Aug. 29, to Monday, 11:00 AM, Sept. 1, 2008
Cost: $165 for adults age 23 and over
$150 for young adults age 18-22

WHAT IS ASIAN YOUNG LIFE? Asian Young Life is a nonprofit Christian organization committed to making a difference in the lives of Asian American teenagers.

WHAT IS THERE TO DO AT SARANAC? Parasailing, water skiing, wakeboarding, water tubing, hot tub, canoes, sailboats, kayaks, basketball (indoor and outdoor), tennis, billiards, ping pong, foos ball, arts and crafts, waterslide, ropes course, and more!

WHAT SHOULD I BRING? Casual summer clothes, swimsuit, jacket or sweater for cool evenings, beach towel for hot tub and waterfront, sandals/flip flops, 50s clothes, blue jeans, lots of socks and underwear, sunscreen, and an adventurous spirit.

WHAT ABOUT HOUSING? Housing is dormitory-style. Men will be housed in one building and women in another. Sorry, there are no "married couples" rooms.

WHERE IS SARANAC, AND HOW WILL I GET THERE? Saranac is located at 4014 State Route 30, Saranac Lake, NY 12983, in the Adirondack Mountains of upstate New York, about 20 minutes from Lake Placid, the site of the 1932 and 1980 Winter Olympics.

HOW DO I REGISTER? The EASIEST way is to register online using a credit card. Go to our website at asian.younglife.org and then click on College and Adult Camp and follow the links.

I STILL HAVE QUESTIONS. Contact our area director Brian Hall at (201) 674-7966 or visit us online at asian.younglife.org. You can also email us at ayl@asian.younglife.org.
